

SERRARI

MODULE 1:
ADVOCACY AND DELEGATION

MODULE 1: ADVOCACY AND DELEGATION

Key Focus Areas:

- Advocating for Client Rights and Needs
- Delegating Tasks to Appropriate Personnel

ADVOCATING FOR CLIENT RIGHTS AND NEEDS

Key Nurse Responsibilities:

- Promoting autonomy and safeguarding interests
- Supporting patients in navigating healthcare systems

UNDERSTANDING PATIENT RIGHTS

Privacy &
Confidentiality

HIPAA compliance and secure information handling

Informed
Consent

Comprehensive communication on treatment options

Autonomy

Respect for patient decisions, including refusal of treatment

Safe and Respectful Care

Protection from abuse and culturally competent care

EMPOWERING PATIENTS

Patient-
Centered Care:

Respect preferences and involve in decision-making

Health Literacy:

Use clear communication and teaching aids

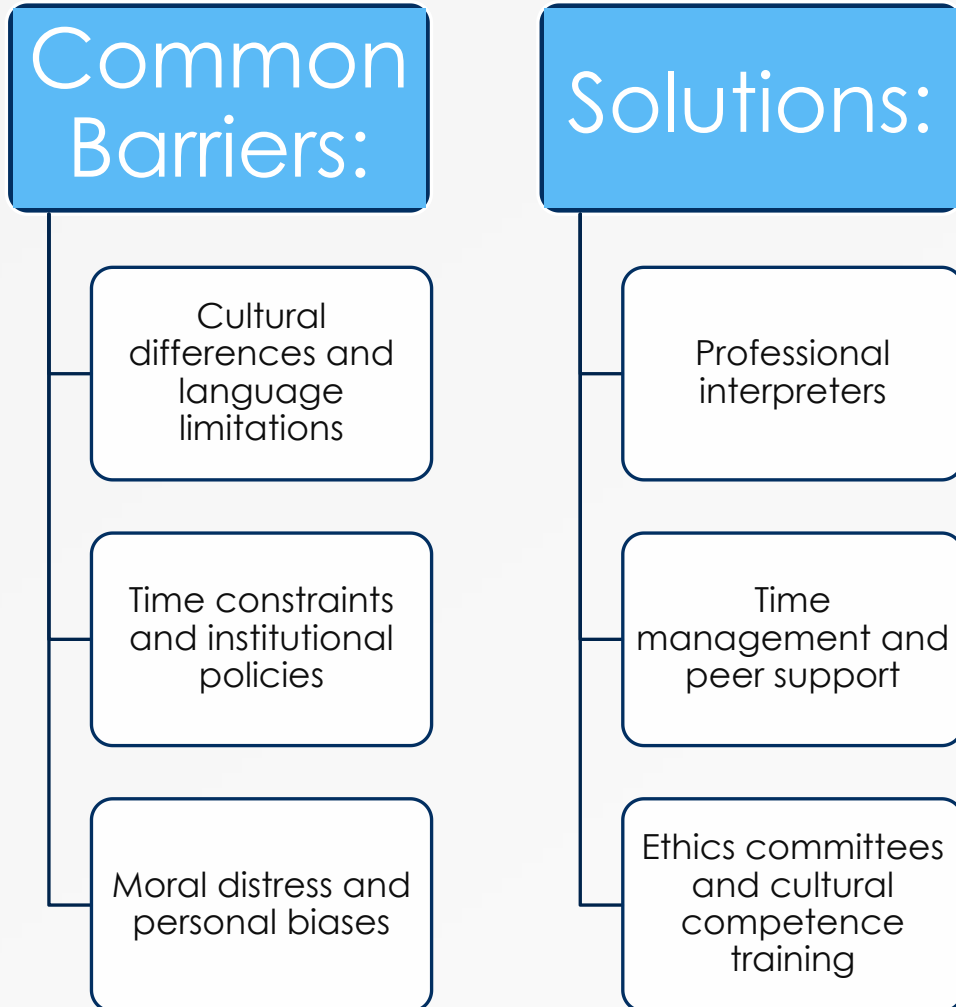

Self-
Management:

Educate on chronic condition care and when to seek help

Support for Vulnerable
Groups:

Advocate for elderly, children, and disabled individuals

NAVIGATING ADVOCACY BARRIERS

DELEGATION: OVERVIEW

Definition:

Transferring responsibility for tasks while retaining accountability

Benefits:

- Enhances workflow
- Improves teamwork and care quality

SCOPE OF PRACTICE

RN: Assessments, education, and medication administration

LPN: Basic nursing care under RN supervision

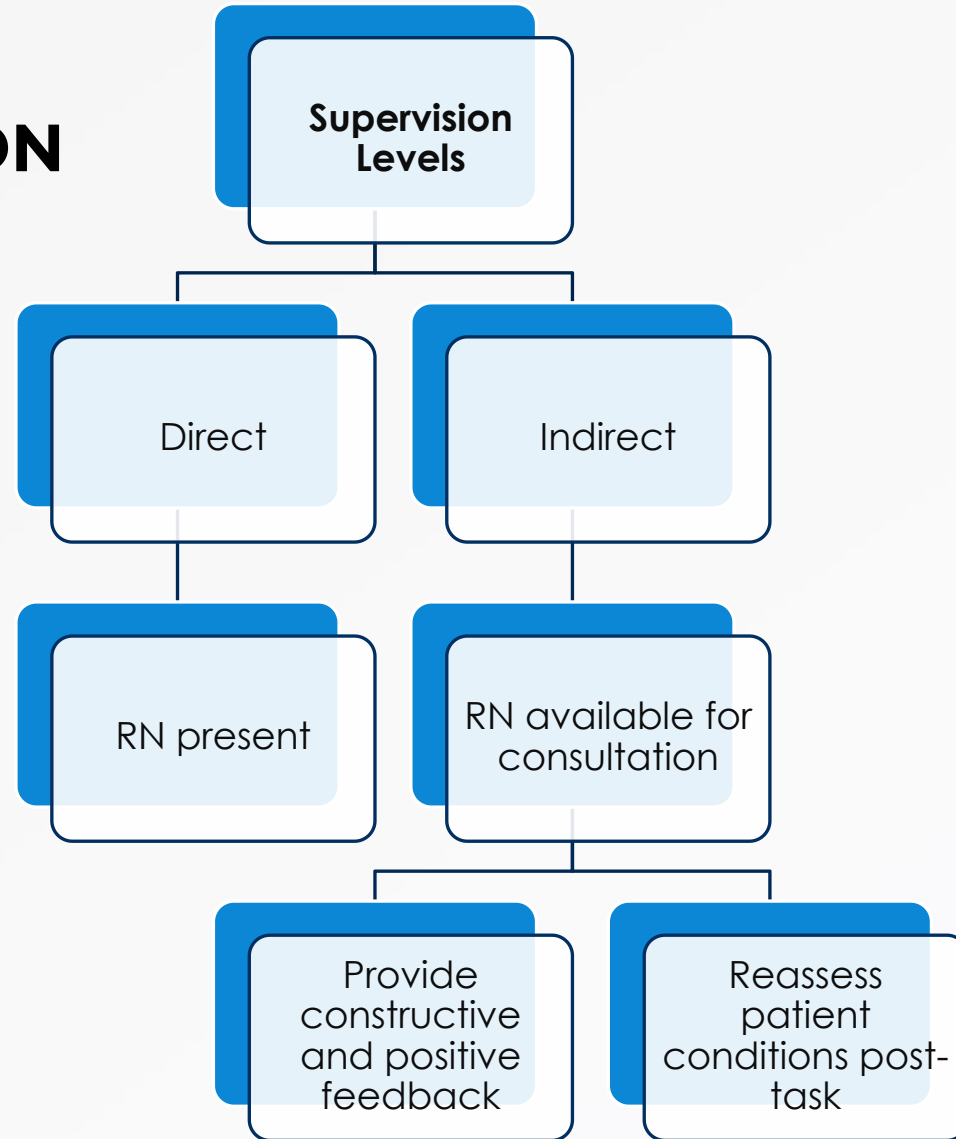

UAP: Non-clinical tasks like ADLs and vital signs

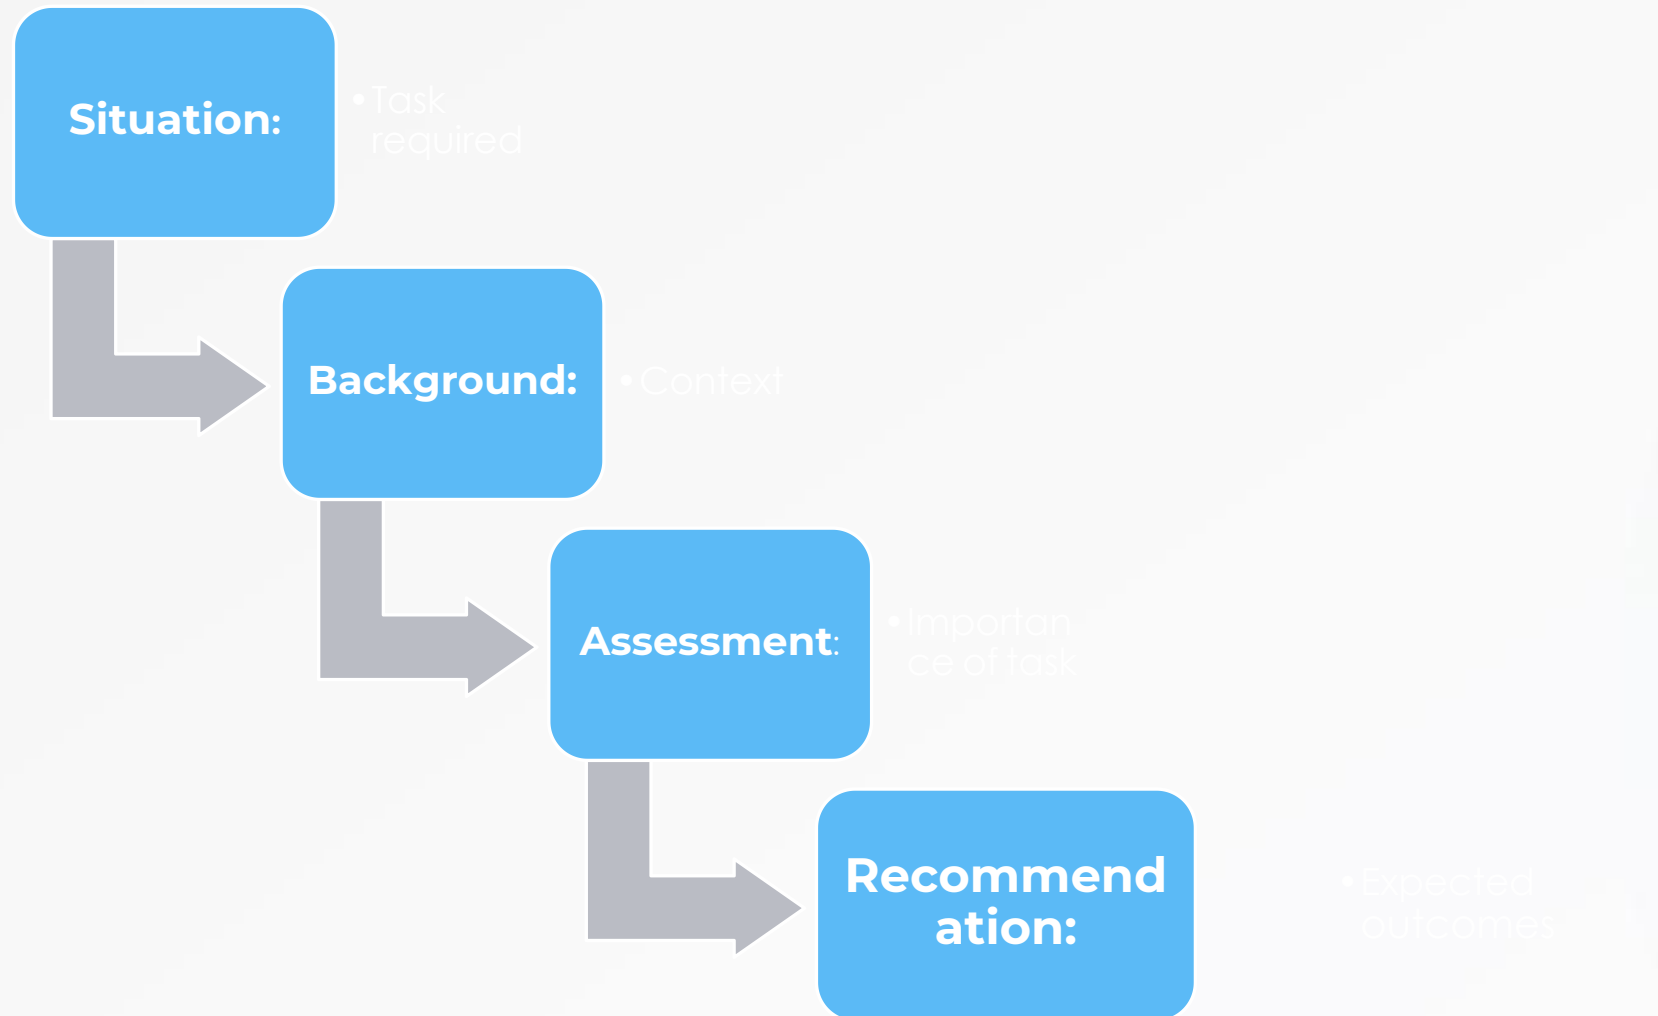

FIVE RIGHTS OF DELEGATION

MONITORING AND EVALUATING DELEGATION

EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATION IN DELEGATION: SBAR FRAMEWORK

CONCLUSION

Advocacy ensures patient rights and empowers decision-making.

Effective delegation improves care safety and efficiency.

Mastery of these skills enhances teamwork and patient outcomes.